

MTSA 2012 Conference Regional Scholarship Program

MTSA 2012 Conference Regional Scholarships exist for application candidates to attend the annual MTSA Conference.

- Proposed amounts of scholarships: $410 per region
This amount will cover 2 nights lodging and 1 Early Conference registration (includes MTSA membership).
- Scholarship awards will fall under the auspices of MTSA Region Representatives with each representative receiving equal funds to disburse.
- Scholarship money will be a separate category of MTSA annual budget (Account #6).
- Scholarships are intended for the support of students or members of organizations who do not typically attend MTSA Conference due to limited or lack of funding. (e.g., parent groups, family groups, student advocacy groups, etc.).
- Each Region Representative will form a scholarship committee to decide on the scholarship recipients. Region Representatives will keep a record of Scholarship Committee meetings including list of committee members, minutes of meeting, names of scholarship applicants and rationale for final scholarship award decisions.
- Region Scholarship Committees will determine adherence of each scholarship candidate to established criterion for award of funds.
- Outcome criteria may include, but not be limited to: MTSA Newsletter article, written Region and/or MTSA Board report.
- Selection of each scholarship recipient will be shared by Region Representatives with the MTSA Executive Board at the February Board meeting.
- Scholarship recipients are expected to attend the annual MTSA Conference Awards Banquet. Recipients will be announced and recognized at Banquet.
- Scholarship recipients must accept MTSA membership and register for the Conference prior to January 31, 2012.
